

Save the Date

2011 Hudson River Watershed Alliance Conference: Watershed Management on a Shoestring Budget

December 15, 2011

8:30 am to 4:30 pm

Henry A. Wallace Center at the FDR Presidential Library and Home in Hyde Park, NY

This conference is a regional training opportunity for local watershed and conservation organizations along with local governments in the Hudson Valley region. Participants include volunteers, board and staff members, restoration practitioners, local leaders, and funders.

Potential Workshop topics:

- Watershed Restoration and Remediation
- Watershed Assessment and Water Quality Monitoring
- Integrating Municipal Stormwater (MS4) Programs with Watershed Management
- Conservation and Preservation
- Local Land Use Planning and Regulation
- Community Involvement and Education
- Organizational Development for Watershed Organizations
- Fundraising and Financing for Watershed Groups

In addition, HRWA's annual Watershed Steward Award will be presented at the conference.

If you would like to submit an application to 1. Give a workshop, 2. Be a sponsor, or 3. Apply for the Watershed Steward Award download the appropriate form on the HRWA website News and Events page at: www.hudsonwatershed.org/events.html
For conference updates, join our mailing list by e-mailing Barbara Kendall (see below) or check back on our website in October for a Conference registration form.

To find out more about HRWA or the conference contact Barbara Kendall, HRWA Coordinator:
barbara@hudsonwatershed.org or (914) 474-2759

HRWA is a project of the Open Space Institute, Inc., a nonprofit public charity exempt from federal income tax under Sections 501(c)(3) and 509(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code.